Clay

A Ceramic Arts Exhibition

For immediate release. Run dates on receipt through December 14, 2024.

The Art Center Highland Park announces Clay: A Ceramic Arts Exhibition, a group show exploring the diverse ceramic processes employed by artists in the Chicagoland area.

Zachary Weber
String Theory no.9

Curated by The Art Center's ceramics department chair Ana Spencer, Clay will feature 15 ceramic artists who represent a wide range of conversations surrounding process and material. The exhibition will prominently feature ceramists from The Art Center's studios alongside celebrated ceramic artists working in and around Chicago's North Shore. Clay will have a specific focus on seeing ceramics in a new light as a way to encourage this ancient practice and educate the surrounding communities on the diversity of ceramic processes.

The exhibition will feature new and returning artists to TAC's galleries alongside celebrated ceramists such as Zachary Weber, Mindy Rose Schwartz, and artists working in The Pottery Studio, Chicago.

Clay: A Ceramic Arts Exhibition will open with a free public reception on Friday, November 8, from 5:30 to 8:00 PM at The Art Center Highland Park, 1957 Sheridan Road, Highland Park. For more information visit www.theartcenterhp.org.
